Welcome to Intentional Now Podcast

An engaging workshop discussion on change, purpose, and redefining what we say yes to!

I'm Kristen Wambach a Spiritual Entrepreneur. Chasing bold dreams, doing the work, asking the questions, and getting life done. What do I mean by DONE? The life we were meant to live! Let's do this together, this is your invitation. Welcome if this is your first episode you are in for a spiritual treat, a heart felt journey, discovered in the course of asking many questions of myself, God and those who He has brought into my life.

Welcome, this is Episode #33

Hope, Opens, Possibilities,
Effortlessly (HOPE Acronym)
(100 Diamond Story)

We will be discussing Hope restoring Hope,
Having Hope

Hope being deferred "Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but a dream fulfilled is a tree of life." Proverbs 13:12

Healing a sick heart
How Faith partners with Hope
And the importance of Heaven in the area of hope

A couple things I'd like to ask of you as the listener
This particular episode is extremely personal. I hold these truths as a beacon over my life.
I'm trusting you to listen with your heart wide open. Since it is focused on a Life Story format I will not take the time to teach and unpack a subject matter. What do I always say: Go ask Jesus! Other episodes and the UnFinished book will answer your questions.

The Lord asked me a couple of days ago to share my 100 Diamond story. Ok I said, but I assumed that it would be a perfect feel good story to release on Christmas Day. The Lord said, Kristen I want you to share it on your next episode. They need to hear it now! And so we begin.

We just started Working our way through Chapter 12 The Watchmaker, in the UnFinished Book. You may pick up your copy at all national retailers or order a copy from me directly @ kristenwambach.com. I'd be honored to sign your copy.

The UnFinished Book is filled with actual stories of my discovering heaven, learning to see and perceive in the spirit. There are powerful activations that will assist you on your journey, stepping through the veil.

Welcome to my international listeners

It's almost mid December. Christmas is bustling every which way.

If you're new, welcome. I provide my listeners with notes, located on my website, KristenWambach.com the direct links are in the episode description.

I want to remind you that sign ups are happening for CoachingforLife2022, you don't want to miss this. An Instagram Group Coaching Platform meant to fit into your life. I'll look for you!

Lets get started

The importance of transparency:

I have listened to a good number of podcasts. They provide me with good ideas, business technics, encouragement, stir up my faith.

At the top of my core value list for Intentional Now Podcast is authenticity.

What do I mean by authenticity? I might use the word imperfect.

That means I am willing to share with you a less than perfect side of me.

Dishes might be in the sink, or I didn't make my bed that day, (a rarity) or by divine order, tee hee, You'll knock on my door in the afternoon and find me still in my bathrobe talking to the Lord, working and I haven't even washed my face yet. I'm Perfectly Me with you. That is authenticity.

I often will stumble over my words and re-say them.... I do not edit out my bobbles.

I do write out my podcast: and share with you my notes, it's important to have focus, to light the path of direction, but Like The UnFinished Book, together we read between the lines and spontaneity, births an impromptu spirit, That is where I have seen many miracles happen. When we let our hair down, and take a Rabbitrail or two.

I have learned more in heaven taking a rabbitrail with Jesus, then praying or reading the scriptures ever instructed me.

I want to make a note to the possibility of this episode published a two part: recorded same day just split.

Recently I have been posting a 25 Advent Christmas Posts, this episode is sewn into the fabric. I invite you to experience each one of the advent drawers, Such treats as Rhymes, reasons, Gifts and Goodies. Today Day 10 we are opening the drawer, finding it filled with Hope.

Some Interesting facts about "a drawer of Hope"

Wikipedia.org describes

A hope chest, also called dowry chest, cedar chest, trousseau chest, or glory box, is a piece of furniture traditionally used by unmarried young women to collect items, such as clothing and household linen, in anticipation of married life.

The term "hope chest" or "cedar chest" is used in the midwest or south of the United States; In the United Kingdom, the term is "bottom drawer"; while both terms, and "glory box" are used by women in Australia. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hope_chest

Anybody out there want to open a glory box?

A couple of days ago I was talking with the Lord about you, yes you listener. I saw myself sitting above the earth on the timeline. So imagine the earth and a floor sitting on top of it. We, you and I were sitting in a speaker audience configuration. I was sitting in a single chair out in front, sharing and teaching you. You the listener were sitting in a pie shape classroom. Easy to imagine.

With practice your spirit is able to leave your body, in and out of time, threw other ages, to other destinations, both on earth and in other realms. That is amazing, wonderful and mind boggling isn't it.

see Hebrews 4 11-13 and this is just a pin prick.

God's Word is Living and Active

Let us, therefore, make every effort to enter that rest, so that no one will fall by following the same pattern of disobedience. For the word of God is living and active. Sharper than any double-edged sword, it pierces even to dividing soul and spirit, joints and marrow. It judges the thoughts and intentions of the heart.

Nothing in all creation is hidden from God's sight; everything is uncovered and exposed before the eyes of Him to whom we must give account....

Your spirit also has the ability to split off be in more than one place at the same time.

Remember our Father is omni present, His DNA lives in us.

Note: the Mt. of Transfiguration. Jesus first had to encounter it Himself, Crucified, Risen, Ruling and Reigning. Then He took Peter, James and John, Today, His Tomorrow, and showed them how it would affect their lives. And He told them to keep it secret.

So your spirit with practice has the ability to get outside of itself. so to speak!

Back to sharing my encounter: I was sitting up front and speaking to you and I saw all of you, my listeners, listening. Then my spirit split, part of me remaining in the chair and the other part came and sat amongst you. Why? To hear your heart? I want to hear what you think about, what concerns you and how I can help. I started hearing your names as you shared them with me. Who you were, what you did and your concerns. Single Mom with a young child who has medical issues a Dad who hasn't be able to find steady work a sister how feels misunderstood and estranged from her family A Wife and Mother who is dealing with serious illness

issues

There so many of you who have financial concerns
Many of you who struggle with anger, procrastination
Those were just some of the things you shared with me. Then Jesus walked into our gathering, He quickly called me over, shared some papers with me, gestured back to you and then left the gathering with a smile on His face. I can clearly imagine what the papers said. So easy to read heavenly braille and feel the Fathers love filling the room. On the papers, were your testimonies, they were in my hands and I was reading them to you.

that single Mom with a sick child her child was totally healed.

That Dad found a great job where he was appreciated and had room for advancement.

The person who struggled with anger, had judged themselves mercilessly, Jesus had touched their heart, set them free and filled their life with joy and gratitude, first for themselves then it overflowed to others.

And you procrastinators.....Jesus gave you eyes to see the people who needed to hear your story, the people who needed your courage to step out from behind excuses. And that picture made you weep.

The sister, she had a heart to heart with herself and Jesus. Jesus shared with her that there wasn't anything she could do that would push Him away. Nothing could deter Him from pursuing her. She felt His love so overwhelmingly that she began to walk in confidence and that change her radically, through her changes she restored herself to her family.

I felt like Bruce Almighty hearing the prayers of the saints filling my ears.

I can feel hope increasing as I'm sharing with you.

I'm thinking that this episode will be a two part: recorded same day just split.

We began to laugh together, some of us crying.
Hope being deferred "Hope deferred makes the heart sick, but a dream fulfilled is a tree of life." Proverbs 13:12

And now I'd like to share with you my 100 diamond story. The drawer of Hope has been opened. We are going to reach in deeply and grab hold of the Tree of Life and change the course of our lives. Are you doing OK?

Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen. For by it the men of old gained approval. By faith we understand that the worlds were prepared by the word of God, so that what is seen was not made out of things which are visible.

Hebrews 11:1-3 MTB

Persuasion confirms confident expectation and proves the unseen world to be more real than the seen. Faith celebrates as certain what hope visualizes as future.

Faith attaches to Hope, that is why it is imperative that we encounter the Living God so He can show us His heart and Hope can be laid up as a living treasure or Hope Chest inside us.

Many years ago, Maybe about the time I was living the Chapter In the Beginning God. I had been seeing in the spirit for a period of times, still didn't have any community in which to talk about things in the spirit.

Heaven had its moments of overwhelm.

I remember years ago I was hospitalized with Spinal Meningitis. Thank God not bacterial, To deal with the immense pain in my head cause by the swelling of my spinal cord, the hospital administers pain killers. The kind you hallucinate on. Scary, my brain felt huge and had the capability to conceive terabytes of information. That is heaven overwhelm. and oh by the way, when that was happening I asked Jesus to protect my thoughts, He did, I still need to write that amazing children's story. Didn't like those drugs and never took another one. Moving on. When your understanding begins to connect with the Fathers heart, your sense expand. Brilliant but TMI. You have to learn how to stand in the glory of God, right! Jesus was always showing me new things, giving me many spiritual gifts.

Keys, more keys, ladders, windows, doors, Angels, Jewels, Scrolls, Robes, Crowns, new hearts, and healthy organs and body parts for people suffering. Answers to prayer: you get the idea.

My personal life was difficult, I had unmet needs. It's had been months since I stepped out of the work force to focus on my role as God's girl. My role as a leader.

Finances were less than lean.

Jesus and I were having class daily in what looked like a blue farmhouse.

We spent most of our time working on areas of intimacy, some of my Father issues, transformation school for sure. This is in the days when my journals were on paper and bound in a notebook.

The feelings of being separated from what I knew as the church, irritating me and I'm sure irritating my husband. I felt as weird as the spiritual things I was encountering.

I was coming down the stairs of this Spiritual farmhouse, with a less than positive attitude, angered, upset, life was confusing,

Like I mentioned earlier: your spirits ability to perceive is off the charts.

Dé já vue which is French for already seen!

Jesus was standing next to the wall in the little living room.

I knew He was going to give me something, I also knew what the gift was.

I walked closer to him, he bent over and undid the combination of a wall safe. (ok a wall safe in heaven? hmm) keep listening.

He took out of the safe a rolled leather jewelers pouch and moved to handed it to me. My body language oozing with misunderstanding, and feeling misunderstood.

I knew what was inside the leather pouch, 100 diamonds, Jesus, with the rolled pouch in His hand leaned toward me and extended His gift.

I broke.

and anger and months of confusion exploded from my mouth. I yelled at Jesus at the top of my lungs. I yelled at Jesus on the earth, I yelled at Jesus in heaven.

I don't want another spiritual gift if I can't get it here!

pause

I was weeping, years of the wonders of heaven
Years of the answers of prayers as close as your touch.

My life changed that day.

What I was taught changed.

He answered my prayer.

All this spiritual "stuff" yes we are being authentic here. same passion, possessed on getting it here to help people, to be a blessing to my family and those around me.

That's why I ask so many questions.

If it doesn't work one way, find another

What's standing in the way of Gods goodness, is it me is it the enemy, what legal right does he have to block the answer

let's move whatever it is out of the way.

what doors need to open mindsets that needs to change

The next time I encountered that same rolled up leather pouch, years latter, I was receiving prayer from a group of, well let's say, very high-minded people. Desperate for encouragement, Hope was wavering. Jesus standing behind me, slipped that same pouch, (which I did not receive years before) over my shoulder and set it on the table before me. I wept!

This time, I knew what to do with those diamonds.

They are Jesus bread crumbs, left to find my way in the dark, find His exact footsteps

They are gifts of communion, bread to eat and share with the ones you love

They are the sand that you throw across a cavern, to reveal the bridge beneath your feet.

Each prism reflects the heart of the Father.

They read the writing on the papers Jesus gave me for you

They are spendable and spent but like the women with the small portion of oil, they never measure less than 100.

I can hold one to the light, to help light your way
They are a 100 day feast of communions 100 diamonds a treasure from His treasury a reminder that you have grown and He has answered its 11:11 on the clock just now.....as my inspiration begins to feel spent.

Remember where we began?

That Hope drawer.

Remember I saw myself sitting in the next to you listening.
You were telling me about you. And we caught Jesus listening.

He wrote down your answer. And gave it to me to give to you.

Remember where I said that we were seated. On the timeline set upon the earth. This is what I saw next, it began to rain from heaven and fall through time.

Can we just take a moment to pause here.

Let the spirit of spontaneity rain miracles. Answers. Hope. Love.

Let the spirit of talking about unfathomable unseen things. Imagine 1 of those 100 diamonds traveling from my pocket, and downloading to your pocket. What would it reveal? Bring, Give, Share?

Can you hold it in your hand, and can you extend your faith to the beauty you feel. Beauty feels like something doesn't it! If you need healing in your body, healing in your heart. move that "feeling" there.

Oh by the way, this is called ascended prayer.

Hope

Is Jesus in the room with you, sitting in the passenger seat if you're driving?
Focus there, look into His eyes.

WE are seated in heaven right!
Above the earth and the life that we live there.
